CALL FOR STUDENT ABSTRACTS

ACHNE members: Bring your undergraduate and graduate students to the Annual Meeting to share their work in the student poster session. Students are invited to submit abstracts on any topic related to Community or Public Health Nursing. If you have any questions about student abstracts, please contact Roxy West, ACHNE Executive Director, info@ACHNE.org.

The abstract submission forms must be typed and submitted as an email attachment to info@ACHNE.org. Submit two files of the abstract, one with identifying information and one without, plus a Biographical/Conflict of Interest form for each author and a cover sheet for each author. Please use the following message heading for your email:

ABSTRACTS: Student Poster session

Baccalaureate and prelicensure graduate nursing student presenters must be registered for the Annual Institute at the time of presentation. Graduate student presenters must be student members of ACHNE and be registered for the meeting at the time of presentation.

1. Type the abstract in the space provided on the abstract form. The abstract should be 250 words or less in length. After the abstract, please include 1-3 educational objectives for your presentation of your work, in the space provided.
2. Provide the entire abstract, including title, author(s) or organizer, address, text, and acknowledgments horizontally within the space provided. Use short, specific titles and standard abbreviations (see example). Make the title specific to the content for the presentation assignment. Include 1-3 educational/learning objectives.
3. Use a 12-point font, single spaced.
4. Underline the names and initials of the authors and include institutions of authors.
5. Complete a cover page for each author.
6. Submit two copies of the abstract. On one of the two copies DO NOT include the author(s) names and institution(s). Submit one copy of the abstract cover page for each author.
7. Complete a Biographical and Conflict of Interest (BIOCIO) Form for each author.
8. Email submission to info@ACHNE.org with the following message heading: ABSTRACTS: ACHNE Student Poster session
9. All materials must be RECEIVED by February 28, 2020. Receipt will be acknowledged by email.

ABSTRACT EXAMPLE

ETHICAL DECISION-MAKING AMONG PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES: A PHENOMENOLOGICAL STUDY

A. Langdon, University of Washington, Seattle; S. Summers, University of Vermont, Burlington, VT.

Ethical decision-making has been identified as an inherent part of nursing practice. The literature reflects a plethora of literature regarding ethical making in nursing, much of which is theoretical or anecdotal in nature. With few exceptions, empirical investigations...

Educational objectives:

1. Participants will be able to identify ethical decision making in public health nursing.
2. Participants will discuss ethical decision-making in their practice area.
